RE: The Academic Union membership

Dear Asoc. Prof. Dr. Corneliu Moldovan,

Previously, we wrote to you concerning the Summit of Leaders on 15th December, 2015 in Oxford Town Hall hosted by Europe Business Assembly and its partners The Academic Union, Oxford and the International Club of Leaders.

We have few more reasons to mention for you to consider your participation in the December event.

During this conference you will have the opportunity to establish links with other academics and higher education institutions for future cooperation on:

- exchange of students, graduates and post-graduates for training, research and internship;
- exchange of researchers in order to conduct joint research, teaching and support in continuing education;
- encouraging and supporting collaborative research programmes and projects;
- exchanging information in your field of expertise.

The programme Committee of the Summit of Leaders has scheduled the joining ceremony of new members of the Academic Union, Oxford during the open science conference ‘Prime Business Destinations: Innovative Aspects of the University City Development’ on 15th December, 2015 in Oxford Town Hall. Details of the event are available here: <http://oau.ebaoxford.co.uk/index.php/about-oxford-summit>

On behalf of the Summit of Leaders Organizing Committee we would like to express our appreciation to you for your consistent activity in science, culture and education as well as the enhancement of education in all spheres of human activity and the intellectual development of modern society.

We are delighted to invite you to join our modern academic community, The Academic Union, Oxford (AU). Currently, the AU amounts to more than 140 members, including Rectors, Vice-Chancellors, Doctors, Professors and prominent scientists from over 30 countries. It is a joint initiative of the Club of Rectors of Europe, Europe Business Assembly and the global scientific community.

It is also possible become a member of the Academic Union in your field of expertise in absentia.

We are pleased to invite you to participate in the forum and present your achievements and new projects to Academic Union members and EBA participants. The attached file contains an invitation for the AU membership.

Please contact your Event Manager regarding accreditation and application is your participation is scheduled.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Kind Regards,
